

GLENN SABELE, ESQ.

Hearing Officer, Nassau County

Following a successful career as a seasoned litigator, Glenn Sabele, Esq. joined NAM (National Arbitration and Mediation) as a full-time arbitrator and mediator. Having been engaged in the practice of law for more than 30 years, Mr. Sabele is highly regarded for his ability to resolve cases concerning personal injury and civil litigation disputes. As a litigator, he developed an affinity towards alternative dispute resolution (ADR), counseling his broad clientele to consider this mechanism as a means towards finalizing time-consuming and costly litigation.

Throughout his career, he has handled numerous matters and has settled, litigated, and tried a diverse caseload. A longtime advocate of ADR, he has served as a neutral for numerous personal injury cases and other types of matters involving negligence. He is well-known throughout the New York Metro area legal community, and highly respected by both the plaintiff and defense bars alike.

Prior to joining NAM, Mr. Sabele served as a partner and senior trial attorney for a prominent New York law firm, where he successfully tried and settled hundreds of matters. During his tenure at the firm, he represented parties in the areas of personal injury, negligence, accidents, legal malpractice, medical malpractice, product liability, nursing home accidents, elevator accidents, slip and fall and wrongful death, and labor law violations. Mr. Sabele began his career as the Assistant General Counsel for the New York City Transit Authority, and thereafter, held the position of Senior Trial Attorney for Royal Insurance where he tried and defended multi-million-dollar cases for major corporations.

In 2025 and 2026, Mr. Sabele was voted a Top Ten Arbitrator in the New York Law Journal "Best Of" survey. He is an exceptionally well-rounded and effective neutral known for his keen legal acumen and negotiating abilities, and has garnered a reputation for being fair, levelheaded, and approachable. He is known for his ability to quickly evaluate a case, astutely assess relevant issues, and effectively guide the parties and counsel to a fair and impartial resolution. His ultimate goal is to get the job done to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Mr. Sabele is available to mediate and arbitrate cases throughout New York State.
