

SALONI MAVANI, ESQ.

Hearing Officer

Saloni Mavani, Esq. is an experienced mediator and arbitrator with more than 20 years of experience handling complex, high-value commercial disputes. Ms. Mavani’s practice is deeply rooted in complex commercial litigation and arbitration, with substantial experience handling disputes between businesses involving breach of contract, unfair competition, fiduciary duty, fraud, unjust enrichment, and related business torts. She has extensive experience with disputes arising from e-commerce platforms, technology partnerships, and international commercial relationships, including claims involving third-party sellers, platform liability, and cross-border transactions. Her work also includes technology licensing disputes, shareholder and merger-related conflicts, and matters involving data security, privacy, and regulatory compliance.

In addition to her commercial focus, Ms. Mavani has handled a wide range of complex matters involving intellectual property, including patent and trademark infringement and trade secret misappropriation, as well as insurance coverage and consumer protection claims. She has also managed disputes involving federal and state regulatory agencies and has significant experience negotiating complex commercial transactions and agreements.

Ms. Mavani’s background includes extensive in-house leadership experience, where she managed global litigation, employment, consumer, and privacy matters for multinational organizations across industries such as technology, telecommunications, financial services, and hospitality. She has served as Assistant General Counsel for a global hospitality company and as Senior Counsel for a telecommunications company, providing strategic oversight of complex commercial disputes and international legal matters. She began her legal career at an Am Law 100 firm, where she handled complex litigation and labor and employment matters.

With a background that integrates complex litigation, global in-house leadership, and alternative dispute resolution, Ms. Mavani brings a practical, commercially focused perspective to each matter. She is known for her analytical rigor, efficiency, and ability to guide parties toward fair and durable resolutions.

Ms. Mavani is available to arbitrate and mediate cases throughout New York, New Jersey, and Washington.
