SCOPE OF RULES

RULE NO. 1: APPLICATION OF RULES

All rules set forth herein are NAM's (National Arbitration and Mediation) Healthcare Malpractice Dispute Resolution Rules and Procedures (hereinafter "NAM's Rules") and shall govern non-binding Mediations and binding Arbitrations of disputes that are administered by NAM by the parties' agreement to use these rules pursuant to a pre-dispute contractual provision providing for Arbitration or Mediation in the event of a dispute.

NAM may administer a case pursuant to these Rules where a written agreement between the parties designates NAM as the Administrator for the arbitration and/or mediation, or provides for Arbitration/Mediation but is silent as to the administrator. In addition, in the event the written agreement between the parties designates an administrator other than NAM to administer the case, NAM may administer the case if (i) the parties consent to same or (ii) after the Claimant serves a Demand for Arbitration/Request for Mediation upon the Respondent and files the case with NAM, the Respondent does not object to NAM's administration of the case within 10 days of service of the Demand for Arbitration/Request for Mediation.

In cases where NAM has been named or chosen as the administrator of an Arbitration, and the parties agree to mediate at any time, NAM's Healthcare Malpractice Dispute Resolution Rules and Procedures shall govern the Mediation.

In any event, it is within NAM's sole discretion to accept or reject any case for administration.

These rules are designed to secure the most expeditious, private and inexpensive resolution and determination of every case, whether in law or equity. One of the underlying benefits of the Arbitration and Mediation process is the opportunity for all parties to a Healthcare Malpractice Dispute to seek redress in a forum which is expected to provide efficiency, privacy and convenience in a less formal setting to injured parties as well as physicians, dentists, hospitals and other healthcare providers.

The parties are free, however, to enter into a mutually executed written agreement at any time to amend or modify any of NAM's Healthcare Malpractice Rules for the purpose of their case. Any such amendment or modification is subject to review and approval by NAM.

In the case of Arbitration, Parties shall initiate Arbitration by one of the following methods:

- A. The parties may send a jointly executed submission form to NAM at 990 Stewart Avenue, First Floor, Garden City, NY 11530 (hereinafter “NAM’s headquarters”). The submission form should include the names, addresses, telephone, e-mail and fax numbers of each party to the case, internal filing or claim numbers (for corporate entities), a brief description of the nature of the claim, the remedy sought, and a copy of the contract or agreement, upon which the joint submission is based;
or
- B. If the parties have not filed a jointly executed submission form but the parties previously have agreed in a written contract to use Arbitration to resolve disputes:
- i. The initiating party (hereinafter the “Claimant”) shall:
 - a. File a written notice of its intention to Arbitrate (hereinafter “Demand for Arbitration”) by forwarding the fully executed Demand for Arbitration to the Respondent. The Demand for Arbitration shall set forth the names, addresses, telephone, e-mail and fax numbers of each party to the case, a brief description of the nature of the claim, and the remedy sought.
 - b. The Demand for Arbitration must state, in part, that if the Respondent fails to respond in writing within 30 days of Service, the Arbitrator may enter an award against the Respondent. In his/her sole discretion, the NAM Administrator may extend this time limit.
 - c. In order for the claim to proceed to Arbitration, the following must be sent to the NAM Administrator at the address listed in Rule No. 10(A) above:
 - a copy of the written contract or agreement which states that Arbitration can be used to resolve the dispute;
 - proof of service of the Demand for Arbitration to the Respondent; and
 - an original and two (2) copies of the Demand for Arbitration and any accompanying paperwork.

RULE NO. 11: RESPONSE AND COUNTERCLAIM

- A. The Respondent shall file a Response to the Demand for Arbitration (hereinafter “Response”) at NAM’s headquarters within 30 days of service of the Demand for Arbitration. The Response shall include a brief statement of the basis for Respondent’s defenses to the claim including any counter or cross claims.
- B. Respondent shall also serve its Response upon the Claimant within 30 days of service of the Demand for Arbitration. Such service must be completed pursuant to Rule No. 12 below.
- C. Any party that receives a counter or cross claim may file and serve a Response to such counter and cross claim within 10 days of service of the counter or cross claim in the Response.
- D. If any party fails to respond to a Demand for Arbitration or counter or cross claim, that party will be deemed to have denied all claims, counter and cross claims asserted against him/her, although the party has thereby waived his/her right to assert other claims, including counter and cross claims, at the Arbitration by failing to respond.
- E. Amendments or additions to claims and counter and cross claims must be made upon mutual agreement of the parties or application to the Arbitrator, upon notice to the other party and will be permitted only upon a showing of good cause and no prejudice to the other party. The other party shall have an opportunity to oppose the application for such amendment or addition. However, the Arbitrator shall make the final decision regarding amendments or additions to claims and counter and cross claims.

- A. At least ten (10) days before the hearing date, the parties shall submit a pre-hearing memorandum including the following elements: (a) a statement of facts; (b) a statement of each claim being asserted (including relevant statutes and case law) and (c) a statement of the evidence to be presented, including live witness testimony (and the amount of time anticipated for such testimony). At least ten (10) days before the hearing date, together with the pre-hearing memorandum, each party shall send a list of documents to be submitted and witnesses to be presented at the time of the hearing, together with a copy of any listed document. Any document not sent in accordance with this Rule No. 12 or any witness not so identified, except those required in rebuttal to any claim or defense, may be excluded at the time of the hearing. Each party shall send the pre-hearing memorandum and all documents and lists of documents, etc., to all other parties and to the NAM Administrator. However, the NAM Administrator may elect to have the parties send such information directly to the Arbitrator (in lieu of having the information sent to the NAM Administrator by notifying the parties accordingly.)
- B. At least five (5) days prior to the hearing, any party may deliver to the party proposing the report, record or document, a written demand that a witness or custodian be produced in person to testify at the hearing concerning such item and be subject to cross-examination. If there is an objection to such demand, the Arbitrator shall resolve the matter as he/she sees fit under the circumstances.

- C. Service of documents may be completed by any one of the following methods: delivery by messenger service, overnight delivery service by a nationally recognized courier company or by certified mail. The party must obtain a record of the sending thereof. Service by any of the aforementioned means is considered effective upon the date of deposit of the document. Documents shall be served to the last known address of the party or its representative for whom same are intended.
- D. In addition to the methods of service provided for in Rule No. 12(C), the NAM Administrator and the Arbitrator may also communicate with the parties and/or each other, and/or serve any document, by electronic fax transmission (fax), electronic mail (email) and U.S. mail.
- E. The time periods fixed under NAM's Rules shall begin to run on the next day after service is effected by one of the methods described in Rule No. 12 (C). Official holidays and non-business days are included in the calculation of the time period. However, if the last day of a time period is a holiday or non-business day in the country where the responding party is located, the time period shall expire on the next business day.
- F. The Arbitrator may require the parties to provide proof of service of the Arbitration Notice and Reply and/or proof of prior notice of any claim, remedy, counter or cross claim or affirmative defenses prior to or at the Arbitration. The Arbitrator may, in the absence of proof of service and/or prior notice to the other parties, preclude any party from asserting any claim, remedy, counter or cross claim or affirmative defenses at the Arbitration. The parties may agree, however, that the Arbitrator should consider such claim, remedy, counter or cross claim or affirmative defenses despite the lack of proof of service or lack of prior notice.

RULE NO. 13: COMMUNICATION BETWEEN PARTIES AND ARBITRATOR

No party shall communicate directly with the Arbitrator regarding any issue related to the Arbitration, until such time as the NAM Administrator or the Arbitrator permits such direct communication. Until that time, all communications with the Arbitrator must be directed to the NAM Administrator at NAM's headquarters at 990 Stewart Avenue, First Floor, Garden City, NY 11021; telephone # is 800-358-2550. Any necessary communication should be in plain written language, including but not limited to, a request for a conference, objection to a discovery request or any questions regarding the Arbitration process itself. The NAM Administrator will contact the Arbitrator as soon as practicable and inform the Arbitrator about the party's request to communicate. The Arbitrator shall have the authority and discretion to take any action the Arbitrator deems appropriate under the circumstances.

RULE NO. 14: LOCATION OF ARBITRATION

Subject to the provisions of the underlying contract/agreement, if applicable, or unless agreed upon in writing by the parties, the Arbitrator or the NAM Administrator (if such decision is needed prior to the appointment of the Arbitrator) shall determine the actual location of the hearing. The Arbitrator may travel to any place necessary in order to conduct hearings, receive witness testimony, and inspect goods, property or documents. The out-of-pocket cost for such travel shall be borne by the parties.

RULE NO. 15: LANGUAGE OF THE ARBITRATION PROCESS

- A. Unless the parties have agreed otherwise, the Arbitration shall be conducted in English. If a party requests a language other than English and the other party objects to such a request, the Arbitrator shall decide the language(s) of the Arbitration. The Arbitrator shall consider the language of the contract and any other matter deemed appropriate. In the event any translation, interpreting or other services are requested as a result of a hearing which is to be held in a language other than English, expenses for such services will be borne by the party which requests them.
- B. In cases where there is a non-participating or defaulting party, the Arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in the language as agreed to by the participating parties, subject to the approval by the Arbitrator or the NAM Administrator (if the Arbitrator has yet to be appointed). The non-participating or defaulting party shall have no cause for complaint if communications to and from NAM and the Arbitration proceedings are conducted in a language approved by the Arbitrator or the NAM Administrator.
- C. In the event that the parties previously agreed in writing that the Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in more than one language, NAM shall administer the Arbitration proceedings in the agreed-upon languages, unless the parties agree subsequently in writing to the contrary or the Arbitrator orders otherwise.
- D. If any document is presented in a language other than the language(s) agreed to by the parties or directed by the Arbitrator and no translation of such document is submitted by the party relying upon the document, the Arbitrator or NAM (if the Arbitrator has not been appointed) may order that party to submit a translation in a language to be determined by the Arbitrator or NAM.
- E. A party to the Arbitration proceeding may request translation of documents or interpreters at any stage of the process. The requesting party shall bear the costs of the translation or interpreters.

RULE NO. 16: APPLICABLE RULES OF LAW

The Arbitrator shall have broad discretion to rule upon all arbitrable issues under the applicable substantive law of the state in which the Arbitration Hearing is to take place. In all cases, the Arbitrator shall consider the provisions of the underlying contract/agreement, if applicable.

- A. The standards of duty, practice or care to be applied to a physician, dentist, hospital or other health care provider in the Arbitration shall be the same standards as would be applied in a comparable medical or dental malpractice civil action under the law of the state in which the Arbitration Hearing is to take place.
- B. Damages shall be determined in accordance with provisions of law applicable to medical and dental malpractice civil actions under the law of the state in which the Arbitration Hearing is to take place.
- C. The Arbitrator shall have broad discretion to rule upon all arbitrable issues and to be guided by the applicable substantive law in the state in which the Arbitration Hearing takes place, and the provisions of the underlying consent to Arbitration or other underlying agreement, if applicable.

RULE NO. 17: DISCOVERY PROCEDURE

- A. The parties shall conduct discovery on a voluntary basis, the procedure of which shall be agreed to by the parties. Failing such agreement, the Arbitrator shall have the power to order such discovery, by way of document production, interrogatory, deposition, or otherwise, as the Arbitrator considers necessary for a full and fair exploration of the issues in dispute.
- B. When deciding upon the nature and extent of discovery, the Arbitrator shall take into account the following factors:
- i. The nature of the claim and counter-claim;
 - ii. The expedited nature of the Arbitration process;
 - iii. Relevancy of the discovery sought by a party; and
 - iv. The cost of discovery must be commensurate with the amount of the claim and the request must not be unduly burdensome and expensive on the parties.

RULE NO. 18: INTERIM ORDER

At the request of either party, the Arbitrator(s) may issue an Interim Order regarding the subject matter of the dispute.

RULE NO. 19: NUMBER OF ARBITRATOR(S)

Subject to the provisions of the underlying contract/agreement, if applicable, or unless mutually agreed upon by all parties, all matters arbitrated pursuant to these rules shall be determined by one (1) Arbitrator.

RULE NO. 20: PAYMENTS/DEPOSITS AS TO COSTS

The parties shall be responsible for all fees due and payable in accordance with the NAM Fee Schedule in effect at the time of the filing of the claim. NAM's fee schedule is subject to NAM's Healthcare Malpractice Dispute Resolution Rules and Procedures and is made a part of these Rules and incorporated by reference herein.

RULE NO. 21: ARBITRATOR(S) SELECTION AND APPOINTMENT PROCESS

NAM shall appoint the Arbitrator(s) as promptly as possible.

The Arbitrator shall be an attorney or retired judge.

For all Arbitration Hearings, unless both parties agree otherwise or NAM determines in its discretion that another method for the selection of the Arbitrator is appropriate for the case, the parties shall select the Arbitrator(s) in the following manner:

- A. NAM shall forward to the parties identical lists containing at least five (5) names;
- B. After receipt of this list, each party may strike two (2) names from the list. The parties shall number the remaining names on the list in the order of their preference and return the list to the NAM Administrator within 15 days of service of the document;

- C. The NAM Administrator shall appoint the Arbitrator from among the names remaining on the list and in accordance with the order of preference indicated by the parties;
- D. If, for any reason, the appointment cannot be made according to this procedure, the NAM Administrator may exercise his/her discretion in appointing the Arbitrator. In making the appointment, NAM shall secure the appointment of independent and impartial Arbitrator. No Arbitrator shall act as an advocate for any party and no Arbitrator, whether before or after appointment, shall advise any party on the merits or outcome of the dispute.
- E. NAM has emphasized the importance of neutrality and impartiality in the Arbitration process to its Arbitrators. NAM may, in its sole discretion, disqualify an Arbitrator if circumstances exist that create a conflict of interest or cause the Arbitrator to be unfair or biased, unless the parties agree to permit the Arbitrator to preside over the matter. Examples of such circumstances include:
 - i. the Arbitrator has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or has personal knowledge of disputed facts;
 - ii. the Arbitrator has served as an attorney to any party;
 - iii. the Arbitrator is a material witness regarding the dispute or the Arbitrator or a member of the Arbitrator's family has a direct financial interest in the outcome of the case;
 - iv. the Arbitrator or a member of the Arbitrator's family is a party to the case or is appearing as a representative for one of the parties to the case.
- F. An Arbitrator shall disclose immediately to NAM circumstances that create a conflict of interest or that may cause the Arbitrator to be biased or unfair. If the Arbitrator is disqualified, the parties shall select a new Arbitrator in the manner described in paragraphs (A) through (B) above.

RULE NO. 22: CHALLENGE OF ARBITRATOR

- A. A party may challenge the nomination of an Arbitrator if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to the Arbitrator's impartiality or independence. Such a challenge shall be made by written submission to the NAM Administrator, specifying the facts and circumstances on which the challenge is based.
- B. As set forth in Rule No. 21(E), the Arbitrator has a duty to disclose immediately to NAM circumstances that create a conflict of interest or that may cause an Arbitrator to be unfair or biased. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties and their Representatives have a duty to perform conflict checks upon the nominated Arbitrator and to communicate any potential conflicts of interest between the parties and/or their Representatives and the Arbitrator to the NAM Administrator as soon as they are discovered. The parties and their Representatives are requested to make inquiries of their officers, directors, agents, trustees, witnesses, immediate and extended families and the attorneys in their respective practices/firms to ascertain any potential conflicts or associations concerning the Arbitrator and to disclose any such information as soon as it is discovered. The parties and their Representatives and the Arbitrator understand and agree that NAM shall make no efforts to investigate potential conflicts of interest until such conflicts are disclosed by the parties, their Representatives or the Arbitrator to NAM. The burden is upon the parties and their Representatives to notify the NAM Administrator of any potential conflict or association or potential for same, that will or may affect the Arbitrator's ability to be impartial in the case.

- C. A party who intends to challenge an Arbitrator shall send notice of the challenge to NAM and the other parties within 15 days after the appointment of the challenged Arbitrator or from the date the alleged circumstances giving rise to the challenge first becomes known to that party, whichever is first.
- D. If one party has challenged an Arbitrator, the other parties may agree to the challenge. The Arbitrator may also agree to withdraw from the case. In neither case does this imply acceptance of the validity of the grounds for the challenge. In all cases the procedure for the replacement of the Arbitrator set forth in Rule No. 23 shall be followed.
- E. If the other parties do not agree to the challenge and the challenged Arbitrator does not withdraw, then NAM shall decide on the admissibility and merits of the challenge. NAM shall provide an opportunity for the Arbitrator concerned, the other party or parties and any of the other Arbitrator to comment in writing within a suitable period of time. Such comments shall be communicated to the parties and to the Arbitrator. Absent fraud or misrepresentation by the Arbitrator, the parties shall be responsible to pay any fees or expenses incurred by NAM and/or the Arbitrator prior to the challenge.

RULE NO. 23: REPLACEMENT OF ARBITRATOR(S)

- A. An Arbitrator shall be replaced under the following circumstances:
 - i. his/her death;
 - ii. the acceptance by the NAM Administrator of the Arbitrator's resignation;
 - iii. the acceptance by the NAM Administrator of a challenge by one of the parties, or
 - iv. upon the request of all the parties.
- B. The NAM Administrator may, in his/her sole discretion, replace an Arbitrator by his/her own initiative if he/she decides that the Arbitrator is prevented de jure or de facto from fulfilling his or her functions, or that the Arbitrator is not fulfilling his or her functions in accordance with NAM's Rules or within the prescribed time limits.
- C. If an Arbitrator is to be replaced, the NAM Administrator, in his/her sole discretion, can decide whether or not to follow the original nominating process in naming the new Arbitrator. Once the nomination process is complete, the Arbitrator shall determine if and to what extent prior proceedings shall be repeated before the new Arbitrator.

RULE NO. 24: CONSOLIDATION

- A. Claims. The Arbitrator shall have the power to hear as many claims as the Parties may have against one another consistent with these Rules. The Arbitrator may hear additional claims that were not mentioned in the Arbitration Request Form, provided the Party adding claims notifies the other Party at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to a scheduled Arbitration, the additional claims are timely as of the date on which they were added, and the other Party is not prejudiced in its defense by such addition.

- B. Parties. The Arbitrator may consolidate claims of different Parties into one proceeding if (1) the claims involve common questions of law and fact; (2) consolidation of the claims is consented to by all of the parties involved in those claims; and (3) all of the parties have agreed to use the same Arbitrator.

RULE NO. 25: ARBITRATION HEARING

The Arbitrator shall conduct the Arbitration Hearings as follows:

- A. The NAM Administrator or the Arbitrator shall fix the date, time and physical location of any meetings, conferences or hearings and shall give the parties reasonable notice thereof.
- B. Arbitrations are binding upon the parties. Parties have an opportunity to present their case in a manner similar to a non-jury trial in the public court system. The Arbitrator will conduct the Arbitration hearing in the manner set forth in these rules. However, an Arbitrator has the discretion to vary these procedures if it is reasonable and appropriate to do so.
- C. The Arbitrator will rule upon the admissibility of evidence and will be guided by the Federal Rules of Evidence. However, strict conformity to the Federal Rules of Evidence is not required. The Arbitrator will consider evidence that the Arbitrator deems relevant and material to the dispute and will accord such weight to the evidence as the Arbitrator deems appropriate.
- D. The Arbitrator shall have the authority to make rulings on motions.
- E. If any of the parties, although duly summoned, fails to appear without valid excuse, the Arbitrator shall have the power to proceed with the hearing despite that party's absence.
- F. The Arbitrator may require witnesses in a party's employ or control to testify under oath if requested to do so by the other party. The Arbitrator may limit testimony or exclude witnesses or evidence that the Arbitrator considers immaterial or unduly repetitive.
- G. The Arbitrator may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents and the parties agree to abide by such.
- H. The Arbitrator will accept and consider witnesses' deposition testimony provided that the other party(ies) had the opportunity to attend the deposition and cross-examine the witness. In the event the other party(ies) does(do) not have the opportunity to attend the deposition(s) and cross-examine the witness(es), the Arbitrator may exclude such witnesses' deposition testimony. The Arbitrator may consider witness affidavits, but will give that evidence only such weight as the Arbitrator deems appropriate.
