

WILLIAM M. SAVINO, ESQ.

Partner, Rivkin Radler LLP

Highly regarded throughout the legal and business communities, William M. Savino has extensive experience in complex commercial and insurance coverage litigation having spent his legal career litigating in both trial and appellate courts throughout the United States. Most recently, in 2018, Mr. Savino received the distinction from Chambers USA as a “Notable Practitioner” in insurance coverage claims and litigation. As a neutral, he brings a wealth of legal and business experience to the resolution of even the most complex of matters.

Mr. Savino has served as counsel for numerous insurance companies relating to insurance coverage claims and lawsuits ranging from intellectual property liability coverage disputes and business torts to national environmental and primary/excess insurer disputes. His experience also includes handling matters involving municipalities and legislative bodies and working with some of the most well-known, respected law firms throughout the United States. By way of example, Mr. Savino served as lead counsel, representing the County of Nassau in the County’s suit opposing financial oversight by the Nassau Interim Finance Authority, in addition to representing the County in various matters involving legislation and taxation issues. Other high profile cases include his representation of insurers in the September 11th World Trade Center Liability Coverage Litigation, the BPA–Plastic Products Coverage Litigation, and Shell Oil Company v. Aetna Casualty and Surety Company. He has served as appellate counsel in a variety of municipal commercial and insurance coverage related matters arguing before various federal circuit and state courts of appeal.

For the second year in a row, in 2018, Mr. Savino was named a National Law Journal Alternative Dispute Resolution Champion, as part of a select group of only 46 nationwide. He has been noted as a 2017 Best Lawyer in America by U.S. News and World Report, a New York Super Lawyer (2008-2016), an AV Preeminent rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell (a distinction given only to those who possess the highest ethical standards and professional abilities), one of the 100 Most Influential Long Islanders by the Long Island Business News and one of the top 50 Most Influential Long Islanders by the Long Island Press, a 2016 Top-Rated Lawyer in Insurance Law by American Lawyer Media, Leadership in Law Partner Award, Long Island Business News ExecuLeaders in Excellence in Law Award, Distinguished Alumnus Award (Long Island) Fordham University School of Law, the Nassau County Firefighter’s Leadership Award and the Nassau County Bar Association’s We Care Honoree.
